

Published based on Beach Resorts you have to Visit

Beach Resorts you have to Visit

The beach is the number one hotspot for tourists and locals to visit when summer time comes. That is why there are many beach resorts you can visit and have a great time in. Like the green smoke review, these beach resorts also feedbacks that will definitely entice you to visit. Beach resorts are great places to enjoy your summer vacation in and you should definitely look for one that will suit your needs. So clear your schedule and plan a weekend with your family and friends visiting beach resorts. Of course, affordability is also an issue, but how much price do you have to pay for a relaxing getaway?

Anguillas Anacaona Boutique Hotel boasts of its white sandy beaches at its best. Just like how green smoke reviews can make or break the product, so are the positive reviews this hotel brings to avid hotel critics. Not only will you enjoy the sandy beaches you also get to stay for at least \$250 a night without breaking the bank. You'll surely feel like splurging especially since you get Frette linens, free Wi-Fi in 27 of their tropical-chic rooms, access to two swimming pools as well as excellent waiter service on the beach. Also, make your way to the hotels Fire Fly Restaurant & Bar on Thursday and you'll see Afro-Caribbean dances performed by a local troupe.

Further enjoy your weekend getaway by doing something fun other than sun bathing. Good thing Cooper Island Beach Club offers such. Located at the British Virgin Islands this hotel offers you a variety of shops, nightclubs and casinos for you to enjoy. No more wearing of fancy getups when dining out for the causal aura the beachside restaurants offer can really make you feel right at home. One reason they come back is their tasty foods which both tourists and locals love. Their conch fritters served with a spicy dip is a winner in their locality.

Travel east to Vietnam and visit Sheraton Nha Trang. This 284-room hotel is filled with local art and a magnificent view of the island-studded Nha Trang Bay. Enjoy eating a variety of cuisines from street foods to European pastries in their hotel. Of course, you don't want to leave Vietnam without knowing a recipe or two, which Sheraton offers an on-site cooking class for those who are interested. With at least $180 a night, what can be better than this?

If you want something romantic why not consider visiting Cyclades, Greece. This place is home to Anemomilos Apartments - a family-run hotel perched atop of the Folegandros island cliffs. For at least $232 a night you'll be enjoying private patios, vistas of the Aegean, pergola lounge and the lovely stone-terraced pool. You can even bring along your best electronic cigarette to enjoy your stay even further. Furthermore, you can do the extraordinary and travel to the serene Katergo Beach for a more relaxed atmosphere.

You can also find this article published on Beach Resorts you have to Visit, and on the tag pages conch fritters, cooper island beach club, hotel critics, time, Weekend, you'll.