Las Vegas and the Top 4 Hotels!

Las Vegas is best known for Gambling, but it is also known very well for its luxury hotels. There are so many different hotels here, each with their own style, it can be difficult to choose one. When staying at Las Vegas, it is important to remember that even the most luxurious hotels can be affordable at relatively low prices, especially for what you get. Just make sure that you don't lose all of your money at the tables! Las Vegas holidays are the best for having a little extra spending cash.

- The Bellagio Hotel: Probably the most elegant and luxurious of all the hotels. Home to almost 4000 rooms the Bellagio is rarely short on space. The main focal point of the Bellagio is the lake that sits in front of the hotel. The fountains inside of the lake are all choreographed together, providing some quite stunning shows. This is definitely a high rollers hotel, one for those that plan on spending a lot at the tables.
- The Grand hotel at the MGM: This has been previously voted as the top luxury hotel in the US. The Vegas experience is most prolific here, and the hotel has been praised for offering it at its highest value. The Entertainment and nightlife is also a very popular feature at this hotel.
- The Caesars Palace hotel allows you to enjoy a past time like casino experience, but keeps you surrounded with Modern technology as well. Something that this hotel is always praised for is its ability to provide top service from its staff.
- This one is the Venetian Resort, and you will be surprised to find out that its style has been based largely around the hotels in Venice. The surroundings are remarkable and the interior design is quite shocking. The moat surrounding this hotel gives visitors the chance to treat themselves to a gondola ride.

USA holidays are very popular around the world, and Fly Drive USA holidays are some of the most popular from Europe.
