

Published based on My Trip to America and the Great State of Colorado

My Trip to America and the Great State of Colorado

I recently took a trip to Colorado and I had a great time visiting the United States. My first stop was into Denver where I had to meet with a Denver photographer to get an image of myself for various marketing products. The photographer was great and we got some really nice photos. After visiting Denver I traveled to some of the mountain towns - I hired a limo company to take me up to Vail and Breckenridge.

The chauffeur was pretty cool and his service was the top limo company in Denver. He informed me that he penned an ebook entitled How to Start a Limousine Business - he said he has gotten a pretty good response from his readers. He even took my wife and kids to the mall and the outdoor shopping plaza. We went to a few stores and had some really good sushi at a place called Nobi Sushi. Sushi rock!

Then we were walking through the mall and our double stroller broke. As you can imagine, with two kids you have to have a double stroller. The limo driver took us to a few of those baby superstores to locate the best double stroller for a low cost price. We purchased a nice double stroller and it even had a stand up section for my older son. Hopefully it will last for five years - our kids will be much bigger by then. My trip to America was great and I really did not want to go back to England quite yet. If you do go, the spring months are the best time of year to visit Colorado.

You can also find this article published on My Trip to America and the Great State of Colorado, and on the tag pages best double stroller, denver photographer, limo, limousine business, state, time.