The Reasons Why You Should Choose The Coho Oceanfront Lodge For Your Next Holiday

The Coho Oceanfront Lodge is becoming the favorite holiday location for more and more people each year. Bunk beds, colorful child theme furniture and video game systems are just a few of the features in many suites that thrill the entire family.

Spectacular oceanfront views are available in the new wing of Sunset Suites, which are offered to couples seeking a child free holiday. Many luxury furnishings are available in the Sunset Suites including Sealy Posturpedic® Plush Supreme beds, spa robes, luxury linens, 32 inch HDTVs, iPod clock/alarm clocks, and other eco friendly features.

Other luxuries offered in these rooms include wet bars, refrigerators, microwaves, corner fireplaces and French press coffee makers with complimentary, freshly ground coffee. On opening up the folding shutters, you will be taken away by the breathtaking ocean views, next to the whirlpool bathtubs.

Pampered guests can sit and sip a glass of wine while enjoying the beautiful sunset from one of the balconies offered in more than half of the suites. From 62 of the 65 units, you have panoramic views of the Pacific Ocean.

Guests of the Coho Oceanfront Lodge can take advantage of their very own beach located behind the hotel. The ambient scenery is topped off perfectly with a fire pit and Adirondack chairs.

The Coho Oceanfront Lodge is a proud member of Lincoln City's Sea Star Travel Program, which encourages businesses in the travel industry to commit to green practices. Among green aspects of the Coho Oceanfront Lodge are recycled glass Lumicor panels in many of the suites, small recycling bins in each room, bio-degradable toiletry bottles and practices that will limit the use of Styrofoam and plastic toiletry items.

$119 to $329 is the range of pricing for one of these beautiful rooms or suites at the Coho Oceanfront Lodge. You can also visit their website at www.thecoholodge.com for further information, or call them toll free on 1 800 848-7006. It is advised to book early to avoid disappointment.
